ABSTRACT

This annotated bibliography is written for teachers of students of multiracial, multicultural backgrounds. The materials are for all age groups and are concerned primarily with the problems and interests of immigrants in Britain. The contents include: (1) reference books; (2) Department of Education and Science publications; (3) Schools Council publications; (4) materials for teaching English as a second language; (5) reading and language schemes; (6) books for the very young; (7) a selection for the primary school; and (8) suggestions for the secondary school, in which entries are divided according to subject areas--English, history, geography, social studies, world religions, selected fiction, and home economics. In addition, several music books and literature anthologies are listed, as well as other suggested bibliographies and periodicals. (LG)
